3	More academically advanced program for kindergarten, maybe a fast track kindergarten with testing	Oct 4, 2011 9:58 AM
4	Communication coul improve. I'[ve received a lot of information from the school but some important items have fallen through the cracks. For instance, a school supply list was not in any of my materials and my child was not ready with them the first day of school. Also, I did not receive instructions or longin finfo for skyward. Just as an aside I find it odd that there are no practice sheets or homework in kindergarten.	Sep 28, 2011 11:38 AM
5	At this point what I have experienced, everything is great about the school.	Sep 28, 2011 11:36 AM
6	Communication ex. email updates	Sep 28, 2011 11:34 AM
7	New family night: I know it would be hard to have all the teachers present on the first night, but I would have really appreciated it if I could have met my daughter's teacher that night instead of waiting a week or two.	Sep 28, 2011 11:32 AM
8	Some information needs to be communicated quicker and more clearly.	Sep 28, 2011 11:25 AM
9	The only thing I would recommend is that more or all payments to the school and PTA be accepted online.	Sep 28, 2011 11:20 AM
10	The lunch form procedure for the new students.	Sep 28, 2011 11:18 AM
11	Everything was great!	Sep 28, 2011 11:17 AM

Q9. What do we do well?

3	Orientation, accessibility of staff	Oct 4, 2011 9:58 AM
4	Communication! Everyone at the elementary school has made my son feel welcome and comfortable. The "Friday Packets" and emails regarding specific issues and events have made my husband and I comfortable and part of the wonderful programs Pleasantdale offers. Couldn't be happier. We love how involved the principal is with the students - shaking hands as the kids get off the buses, playing kickball during recess, etc.	Sep 29, 2011 9:54 AM
5	I like the phonics night for parents, the Friday packets and website are great too!	Sep 28, 2011 11:38 AM

9	The staff at Pleasantdale are always so warm and welcoming. My son looks forward to going to school every morning. He always likes to guess if it will be the "coach" or "principal" to help open his door.	Sep 28, 2011 11:23 AM
10	Communication. The new family orientation night is perfect example of how effective Pleasantdale is at communicating with parents and students.	Sep 28, 2011 11:20 AM

12	Communication	Sep 28, 2011 11:17 AM
13	I think it is wonderful the involvement of parents and the visibilitiy of the principal and superintendent as well. I was very impressed that the principal has direct daily interaction with the students and knows names as well. When I went to school the only time you saw the principal is if you were in trouble. This is the positivie side by being visible.	Sep 28, 2011 11:15 AM
