

First Grade: Language Arts

Students will read sentences and simple stories orally with fluency. They will compose complete sentences utilizing the writing process and the 6 Traits writing model.

- Students will orally manipulate phonemes.
- Students will apply phonics skills in reading and writing. These skills include:
- Students will read first grade leveled text with fluency.
- Students will construct meaning from a first grade level text by applying reading strategies before, during and after reading .
- Students will use the writing process to create complete sentences and evaluate them for ideas and word choice.
- Students will demonstrate first grade conventions in original sentences.
- Students will demonstrate research skills by writing a question and response sentence on a chosen topic.
- Students will demonstrate specific skills that will lead to vocabulary development.
- Students will listen and speak effectively in a variety of situations.