

Acrostic

A poem in which the title is written vertically. The author begins each phrase with a letter from the title.

R ustling the leaves on the trees

A wakening me in the middle of the night

I nching higher and higher

N eeded to make the flowers grow

Haiku

These poems are usually about nature, an event happening at that moment, and an emotion or feeling. There are 3 lines and 17 syllables in the poem. The first line contains 5 syllables, the second line contains 7, and the third contains 5.

Example:

*Take the butterfly:
Nature works to produce him.
Why doesn't he last?*
