

Kindergarten Social Studies

Students will distinguish their personal characteristics. They will compare important holidays and celebrations in our country and around the world.

- Students will describe themselves and their place in their family.
- Students will demonstrate appropriate ways of getting along with others.
- Students will identify various holidays and relate them to the country of origin.
- Students will demonstrate ways of honoring the United States of America and special Americans.