

COVER ART CONTEST FOR THE 2009-2010 PAW PRINTS JOURNAL

"Paw Prints" - the Pleasantdale Middle School literary journal is now in its THIRD year! It is an awesome way to showcase the written and artistic talent of our middle school students.

This year, we are offering all students an opportunity to see their work on the cover of the 2009-2010 Paw Prints journal! The artwork must be an original, student composition (school produced or independently produced) which best depicts the spirit of the Pleasantdale Middle School community.

Criteria

- The work may be produced in media of your choice (pencil, chalk, watercolor, even photography)
- It should have good contrast for optimal reproduction quality
- The composition should not exceed 18' x24" in size
- It may be produced in color or black and white.

Interested artists should submit their entries to Mrs. Dianne Washburn, Middle School Art Instructor, by April 5, 2010. The winning entry will be revealed when this year's Paw Prints is published, on or about May 24, 2010.

If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Dianne Washburn, Pleasantdale Middle School or the PTA Reading/Literature Committee (Rosaria Becker, rosaria@comcast.net or Julia Doyle, max2244@aol.com)
