

"WRITE STUFF" - FEBRUARY 2010 THIRD AND FOURTH GRADERS

Directions:

Please take a few minutes to read the prompts below. When you have decided which one you will write about, circle it. Write your name and your teacher's name on the bottom. On a separate piece of paper, using a pencil or a computer, compose your essay and attach it to this form. (Don't forget to put your name on it!) Return your essay to your teacher by Friday, February 26th. It's that easy! PARENTS, FEEL FREE TO HELP OUT WITH THE PROMPTS IF NEEDED. ARTWORK IS WELCOME!

Your incentive for your great writing effort will come sometime in March. Your name will also be entered for a chance to win other great prizes, including a pizza party with Mr. Vandercar. So GET READY...GET SET....WRITE!!!

THINKING OUT OF THE BOX

Time to break out of the winter doldrums! Pick one of the following prompts and show us your creativity by writing at least 6-8 complete sentences with lots of descriptive words answering the question. There is no right or wrong response to an imaginative and thoughtful answer. Just make sure you are following all the grammar rules you have learned and have fun!

A) What would happen if everyone (adults and kids) wore the exact same clothes every day?

B) What would you do if you wanted to be friends with someone who spoke no English?

C) If you could break the Guinness Book of Records, what would it be for?
